FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Petitioner Hubert Warren, appearing pro se, has filed an application for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. For the reasons stated herein, the application should be dismissed without prejudice pending review by a three-judge panel of the court of appeals.

I.

Petitioner was convicted of aggravated assault on a public servant and sentenced to 60 years confinement. His conviction and sentence were affirmed on direct appeal. Warren v. State, 98 S.W.3d 739 (Tex. App.--Waco 2003, pet. ref'd). Petitioner also filed applications for post-conviction relief in state and federal court. His state writ was denied without written order. Ex parte Warren, No. 52,260-04 (Tex. Crim. App. Apr. 16, 2003). The federal writ was denied on the merits. Warren v. Dretke, No. 3-04-CV-0496-D, 2004 WL 1836733 (N.D. Tex. Aug. 16, 2004), COA denied, No. 04-11151 (5th Cir. Apr. 19, 2005), cert. denied, 126 S.Ct. 743 (2005).

Petitioner now seeks federal habeas relief for a second time on the grounds that: (1) he received ineffective assistance of counsel at trial and on appeal; (2) his conviction is void because the trial judge acted in a manner inconsistent with due process; and (3) the prosecutor and state courts conspired to violate his constitutional rights. Before addressing these claims, the court must determine whether petitioner can file a successive federal writ without prior approval from the court of appeals.

II.

The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (“AEDPA”) limits the circumstances under which a state prisoner may file a successive application for federal habeas relief. See ANTITERRORISM AND EFFECTIVE DEATH PENALTY ACT, Pub.L. 104-132, 110 Stat. 1214 (1996). A petitioner must show that the successive application is based on: (1) newly discovered evidence that, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that no reasonable factfinder would have found him guilty of the offense; or (2) a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable. 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(2). This determination must be made by a three-judge panel of the court of appeals before petitioner files his application in federal district court. Id. § 2244.

The Fifth Circuit has not issued an order authorizing the district court to consider this successive application for habeas relief. Petitioner must obtain such an order before this case is filed.

RECOMMENDATION

Petitioner’s application for writ of habeas corpus should be dismissed without prejudice pending review by a three-judge panel of the court of appeals.

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party may file written objections to the recommendation within 10 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). The failure to file written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).

DATED: April 10, 2006.
